20th Post - Ultra and Mint Mobile all after my eSIM with Best Buy's Help in Geek Squad

June 02, 2024

Today was fairly interesting because I went to Geek Squad at Best Buy in Marysville off 172nd St exit 206 on I-5 for something I have done in the past before, performing a DFU IPSW iPhone Restore, what makes this interesting is the agent took my phone for about 20min and then came back stating he couldn't get into DFU mode, realistically that would taken under a minute to figure out 20min is enough time for a device backup, long story short he used a "different cable" and magically got it to work BUT he stated to me he used Apple Configurator instead which is not the simple protocol Apple would have Geek Squad follow! As stated, I've done this in the past with no issues but today was different.... My device came up with a longer email address for iCloud when setting it up in store on camera, this wasn't accurate, thankfully I had a second Apple Device to PROPERLY setup MY actual iCloud and not whatever he was trying to get forced onto my device using Configurator, I didn't trust him to perform the same action/task with that Apple device, no way at this point!

So now onto T-Mobile and its acquisition of Mint Mobile. I found a log on my phone Ultra/Mint Mobile, WHAT is up with Ultra!? I'll tell you what, it's all about my eSIM using Mint Mobile and T-Mobile has the tech to basically duplicate and in essence utilize Ultra as another MVNO to get away with this Geek Squad backup of my device the agent made illegally (trust me they'll deny it, but 20min and DFU mode to use another non-Apple cable magically work out, COME ON MAN!!!)... My iPhone 15 Plus hasn't been 100% right like it should be had Geek Squad done a correct IPSW restore of my device like I asked for per Apple Protocols, not this Apple Configurator BS he performed behind the scenes. This is all for getting into my iCloud account most likely, but Stolen Device Protections were enabled so if a clone is made somehow Apple should be alerted to this happening... . He TRIED to advise me that I may encounter "issues" basically warning me of what's going on with T-Mobile behind the scenes here, I did not delete the eSIM and DFU Reset wouldn't have wiped it that out UNLESS I specifically did that beforehand, Apple knows this and so do Apple geeks. What did T-Mobile do here, promise to get

Circuit City back on the map again and take out Best Buy via Geek Squad, rehoming the Geek Squad I see?

So back to Ultra now... what's going on with the ARIN Abuse team now behind the scenes here? I've already figured out and called ARIN abuse before, "press 8 if your being monitored by our team essentially" presses 8 and behold a very SURPRISED IT guy a while back, that'll never happen again because somehow my calls have been rerouted on the network and I've experienced this happening first hand, ARIN probably vowed to never let me route to them again so my calls route to some random person within T-Mobile, that's been the experience at least, sorry for the guy at T-Mobile internal in the non-IT dept who got me 2x at his desk "sorry dude, but if you remember me now! This is your moment..." I've witnessed rerouting issues with the network and it's def happening behind the scenes with me, I wish I had the technical know-how to officially prove this occurring... Well, CHC (Community Health Center) lately calls from a NY number lately and shows up in Voicemail as from NY, that's the best example I have at this point TBO...

CHC that's another one to get into here, my medical record had edits made into it with conditions that are made up! I messaged in concern about the "illegitimate records created" and got NO RESPONSE (not surprised here, they probably didn't think I would catch this happening), hmmm now that DRS is looking more and more now suspicious... That was post #19 BTW....

Slowly this picture being painted shows from the top to the bottom how each step of the way somebody is getting screwed here... I can now start to see this effect happening all around me now and it's crazy this is all over me, simply put. It's crazy to think all this is all connected and goes back to my very first post I made, what if this a second chance timeline? Someone is seeking that I fail at all costs here but I'm going to fight this shit with THE TRUTH because as stated THE TRUTH ALWAYS COMES OUT!!! The whole point in creating this Blog now has some actual factual juice too if somebody can possibly see besides just me now!!! I had a feeling that things would happen this way and get to a point like this, now recall that CIA FOIA as we come to end here in our moment of blogging... It all slowly adds up little by little but I think Best Buy may have seen me on camera writing a letter mid-way all this happening notating in real time as a warning in a sense that I KNOW what's sort of going on here suspiciously feeling, so if they did open my device up from a backup this will be something they find FIRST hahaha (it's not funny, but I did try to warn them, to do the right thing and not mess this up for my life is on the line here! Literally speaking and "who's next?" umm let's not let there be a next time!! Stop whatever illegal universal mind crime occurring to me from happening again to anybody else!!!)

You're welcome.

BTW one last thing... This PROBABLY has something to do with MATH MONEY aka (Crypto) somehow in the bigger picture here, I mean seriously one of the square roots of all evil is GREED so that probably has some fact to it here, chances are someone is going to try and blame me for behind the scenes MATH MONEY somehow someway, that's logically what makes the most sense here... Logic says if evil is probably after you then money has something to do with it... That's just the cake here in the big picture of things and something to take into consideration.... For the record the second part to the square root of all evil is the LUST FOR POWER just so I'm clear, so whomever is after me obviously has those traits, and my role is just the truth. And to fight for truth with my life at this point!

ANOTHER THING: So Best Buy probably made some sort of trade off for my device backup based on some sort of legal request of some sort, trading for a snapshot of my device in time for a present snapshot for the CIA or whoever is after my data. Funny thing, there's not a lot of data to be found on my device haha, it's pretty vanilla and boring for the most part but now that I'm aware this is happening and I'm public about it tells me that legally speaking my rights have been way far to the right violated! AND just the icing on the cake here, we did this process 2x in effort to get the TRUE IPSW on our iPhone 15 Plus the way Apple would have intended it to be. I GAVE BEST BUY ANOTHER CHANCE to do the right thing with me and again they still chose the incorrect path to take, there's an iCloud Note Pinned just for them to read should they break into my notes. I've already been seeing 5D nuances on my device hinting at compromised security already, which quite frankly is rather annoying to know about and downright stupid for whoever is stupidly after me. So, what does this all mean in the big picture, I mean how did they crack my device and iCloud open? That's a bigger question with a later answer to it, just put a pin in this situation for now. The truth will always come out! AND SHAME on Geek Squad for going along with this, how would you feel if this happened to you?!? Ask yourself that when you go to sleep at night Geek Squad, let it keep you up, pondering... And if you read the iCloud Best Buy note, let that really sink in, especially if you watched it happen in real time on camera with the iPad hahaha AGAIN let me stress the fact legally speaking I know my rights have been violated, if there's a 5D lawyer waiting for me trust me we have this in the bag lol especially with all the documentation I've done and cooperation. This crosses the invisible line here though, and I stand by my words the truth will always come out....
